Public Input Helps Set Deer Management Strategy

Missouri's deer herd is a valuable resource that provides millions of hours of recreational opportunities. Also, hunters and wildlife watchers contribute billions of dollars to our state's economy through expenditures on hotels, meals, supplies and related equipment. Successful management of deer requires an important partnership between citizens, conservation officials and, most importantly, hunters.

The Conservation Department is embarking on a new deer management strategy to protect the health of Missouri's deer herd by shifting harvest pressure from bucks to does. This shift will result in a more balanced ratio of bucks to does and will make it easier in the future to maintain desired population levels statewide.

Balancing the composition of the deer herd will become more critical in the years to come. Hunters are the most effective and reliable means of controlling deer numbers, but a large portion of Missouri's deer hunters are part of the "baby-boom generation" whose average age inches up each year. Surveys indicate that older hunters tend to take fewer deer. At the same time, a growing number of deer hunters are asking for herd management that produces more older-aged bucks. Responding to these trends will require a shift in how Missourians use hunting to manage the deer herd and the introduction of new hunters to the sport.

Several population management strategies can be used to shift harvest pressure from bucks to does while allowing more antlered bucks to survive the hunting season. As with any major hunting season change, it is vital that new regulations have the support of hunters and landowners. To assess the interest in possible changes to deer regulations, the Conservation Department conducted a series of public meetings in various locations throughout Missouri.

Five deer herd management options were presented for discussion, and attendees were encouraged to offer other suggestions. The meetings were well-attended, and everyone had the opportunity to voice their opinion. Many others sent letters and e-mails to express their views. A total of 2,901 written opinions were tallied. We also conducted broad-based, random surveys of deer hunters and farming landowners to gauge the thoughts of those who could not attend the public meetings. Although each option has its supporters, it is clear that one option—antler-point restrictions—enjoys the most support. See chart.

Management option	Supporters*
Antler-point restrictions	51%
Move season out of rut	26%
Earn-a-buck	24%
Shorten buck season	8%
Buck permit quota	5%

Some favored more than one option.*

New! Antler-Point Restrictions in Selected Counties

For the 2004 archery and firearms deer hunting seasons, antler-point restrictions will be in effect in the 29 counties shown on the map. In those counties, only bucks that have at least four antler points on one side of their rack may be taken. See illustrations on pages 4 and 5.

This restriction applies to all persons hunting in the designated counties, except for youths hunting during the two-day youth portion of the firearms season.

These pilot regulations will be evaluated for three to five years. Surveys will measure hunter and landowner attitudes throughout the trial, and biological data on the status of the herd will be collected each year. Adjustments will be made if needed. Based on public input, consideration also will be given each year to adding counties to those under this regulation.

We expect to see both hunter and landowner satisfaction with deer management increase as a result of this regulation. Antler-point restrictions are not just about growing bigger bucks. They have been shown to be a valuable and well-accepted tool to increase doe harvest. Deer hunter support for antler-point restrictions has grown rapidly in states that have implemented this tool.

During the archery and firearms deer hunting seasons (except the youth portion), antler-point restrictions are in effect in the counties shown in orange.

In the following counties, only bucks that have at least four antler points on one side of their rack may be taken:

Adair, Andrew, Atchison, Boone, Chariton, Cole, Daviess, DeKalb, Franklin, Gasconade, Gentry, Grundy, Harrison, Holt, Howard, Linn, Livingston, Macon, Maries, Mercer, Miller, Nodaway, Osage, Pulaski, Putnam, Randolph, Schuyler, Sullivan and Worth.

Get your deer permits by Nov. 5 to enter drawing for free lifetime hunting & fishing permit!

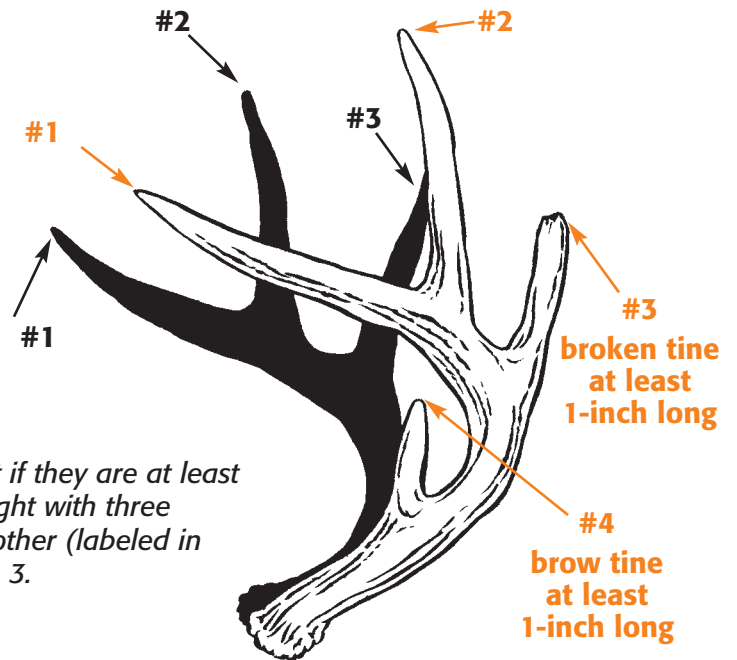

Info for Hunting in Counties with Antler-Point Restrictions

How to count points

In counties listed on page 3, an antlered deer must have at least four points on one side to be taken. Each of the following counts as a point:

- an antler point, if it is at least 1-inch long
- the brow tine, if it is at least 1-inch long
- the end of the main beam
- any broken tine that is at least 1-inch long.

Tines, main beams and brow tines all count as a point if they are at least 1-inch long. A buck with the seven-point rack on the right with three points on one side (labeled in black) and four on the other (labeled in orange) is a legal deer in the counties shown on page 3.

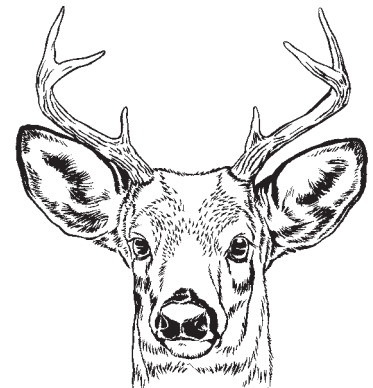

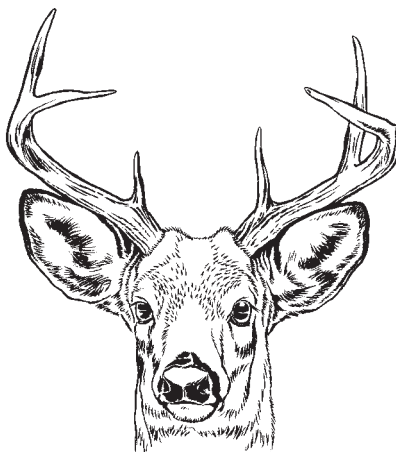

Hunting tips for counties with antler-point restrictions

Bring binoculars and give yourself plenty of time to count antler points before you take a shot. Wait for a buck that has at least four points on one side.

Successful hunters wait for the best shot—when the deer turns broadside. Learn to recognize antlers from this view to minimize errors in the field.

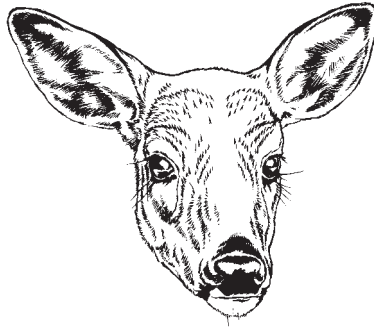

Don't be fooled by size. The buck on the left has a large rack; but it has only three points on each side, just like the one on the right. Both of these deer are illegal under the four-point restriction.

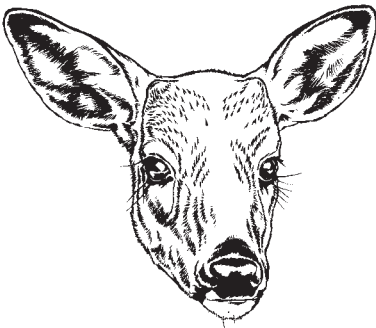

Legal to take

Does, button bucks and bucks with spikes less than 3 inches are legal to take on Antlerless or Any-Deer Permits; but for deer management, it is better to take does.

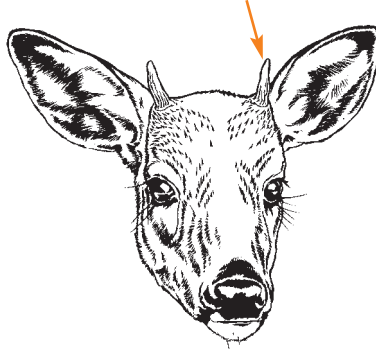

All does

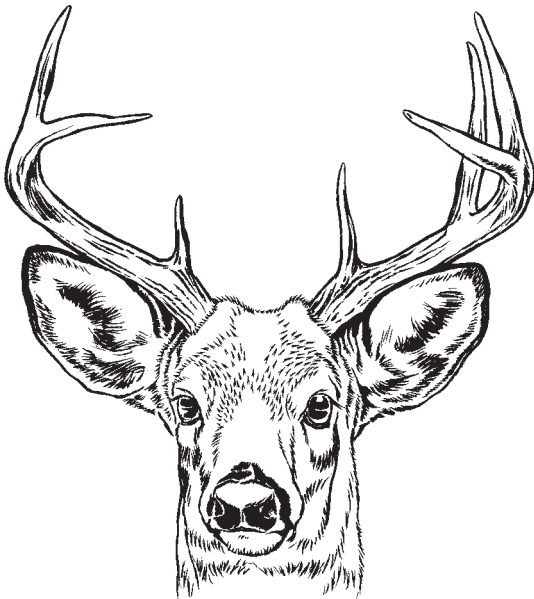

Button bucks

Bucks with spikes less than 3 inches long

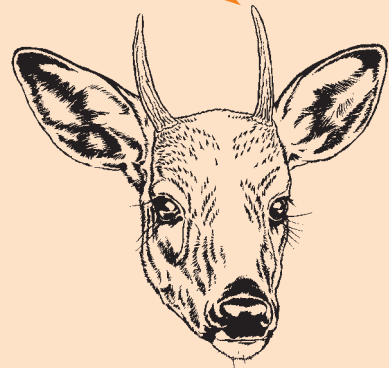

Bucks with at least four points on one side.

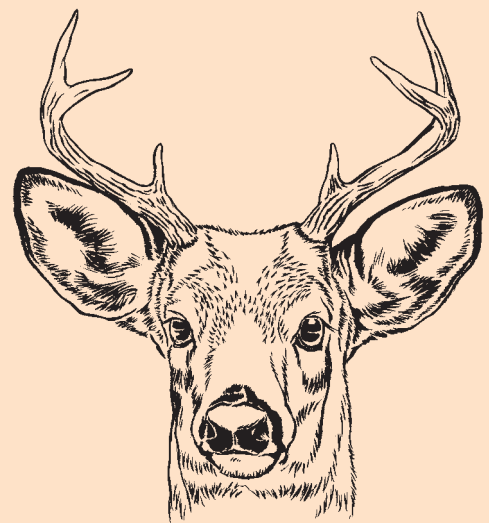

A legal buck must have a minimum of four points on one side, regardless of the number of points on the other side, like the seven-point buck above.

Protected

spikes 3 inches or more

Protected deer include bucks with spikes 3 inches or longer (above) up to bucks with three points or less on each side (below).

Letting these younger males mature will increase the number of adult bucks in the future.

Basic Rules for Safe Turkey Hunting

- Wear hunter orange when walking through the turkey woods. If you bag a turkey, wrap it in hunter orange before carrying it out.
- Dress defensively; never wear red, white, blue or black in the turkey woods.
- Always see the turkey clearly before you shoot; never shoot at sound or movement.
- Shout to reveal your presence to an approaching hunter; never wave or whistle.
- Pattern your shotgun to learn its effective range, and learn to accurately judge distances.

Remember: 30 yards is about the limit for a clean kill.

- Remain calm and rational; never let excitement, nerves or panic rule your behavior.
 - Assume every sound or movement is another hunter until you can safely identify it as otherwise.
- A black and white line drawing of a person, possibly a hunter, crouching in a field of tall grass. The person is wearing a hat and a jacket, and is looking down towards the ground. The drawing is done in a sketchy, expressive style with many lines for the grass and the person's clothing.

Safety sticker requirement

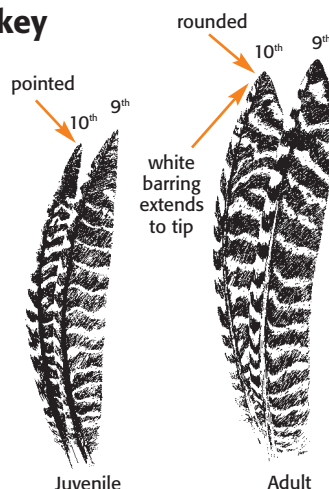

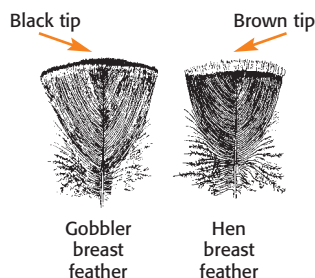

All hunters using a shotgun must affix the "Be Safe" sticker to the receiver of their gun so it will be in their line of sight when shooting. The sticker must be maintained on the gun while hunting. Stickers are available wherever permits are sold.

New! TeleCheck: Phone and internet checking available for all fall firearms turkey hunters

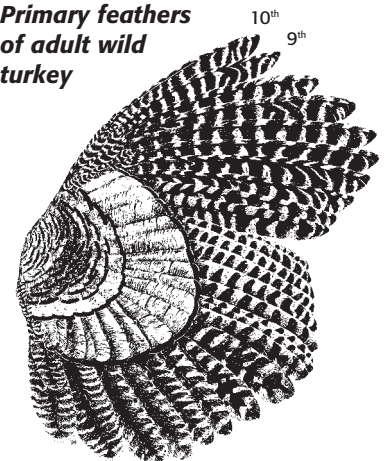

Turkeys taken during the fall firearms turkey season can be checked by telephone or internet. See back cover. During checking, hunters will be asked the age and sex of their turkey. Monitoring the age and sex of harvested turkeys through checking provides a valuable measure of the fall harvest. Aging and sexing turkeys is simple. See illustrations.

How to determine the sex of a turkey

Look at the lower half of the breast. Hens have brown-tipped breast feathers. Gobblers have black-tipped breast feathers.

Primary feathers of adult wild turkey

How to age a turkey

To age a turkey, look at the two outer most feathers on the wing. Juveniles have pointed primary tips. Adults have rounded tips.

2004 Firearms Deer Hunting

The firearms deer hunting season is made up of five portions that provide hunters with many opportunities to take deer while helping to maintain a healthy deer population.

Firearms Antlerless Deer Hunting Permits

Because female deer produce next year's deer, the harvest of does regulates both the size and growth rate of the deer herd. Population goals are established for each county, and the use of Firearms Antlerless Deer Hunting Permits is established accordingly.

Any-Deer Permits are valid statewide. Firearms Antlerless Deer Hunting Permits are valid as follows:

-  Any number of Firearms Antlerless Deer Hunting Permits may be filled.
-  One Firearms Antlerless Deer Hunting Permit may be filled.
-  No Firearms Antlerless Deer Hunting Permits may be filled. Landowners may receive additional privileges. See page 11.

Hunting Other Game During the Firearms Deer Hunting Season

During the November and antlerless portions of the firearms deer season from Nov. 13–23 statewide and Dec. 11–19 in open counties, other wildlife may be hunted only with a shotgun and shot not larger than No. 4. However, this does not apply to waterfowl hunters, trappers, landowners on their own land, or lessees on land they lease and live on.

During daylight hours from Nov. 1–23 statewide and also Dec. 11–19 in counties open during the antlerless portion (see map on page 10), furbearers may not be chased, pursued or taken with the aid of dogs.

During daylight hours of the November portion of the firearms deer hunting season from Nov. 13–23, squirrels and rabbits may not be chased, pursued or taken with the aid of dogs in Bollinger, Butler, Carter, Dent, Iron, Madison, Oregon, Reynolds, Ripley, Shannon or Wayne counties.

Special regulations also apply when pursuing feral hogs. See page 19.

Urban portion

This portion of the firearms deer season allows for the harvest of antlerless deer in areas where deer numbers need to be reduced. Therefore, some public land where deer are not abundant may be closed to hunting. Hunters must abide by local ordinances regarding trespass and use of equipment.

Season dates

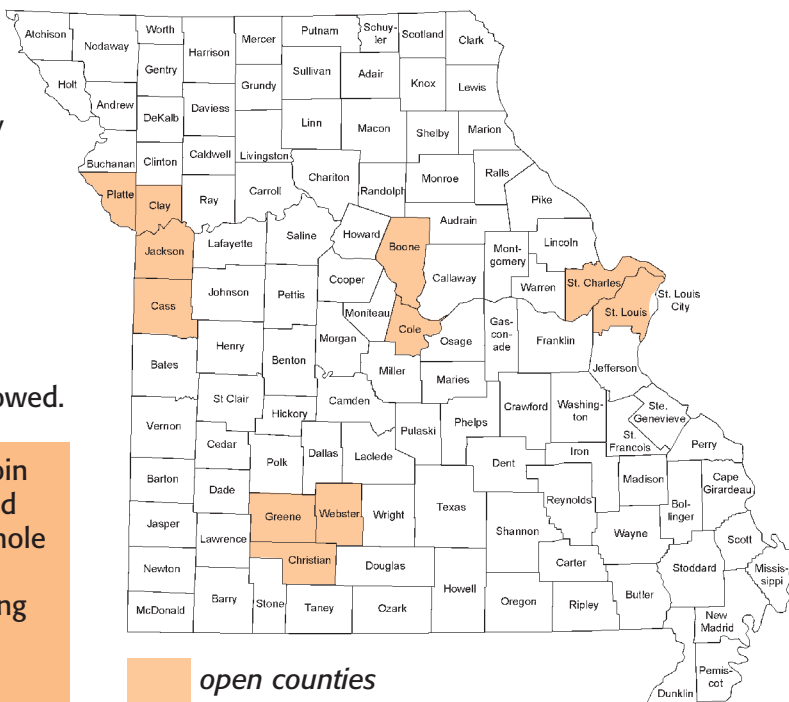

- Oct. 8–11 only in open counties, see map

Methods

- New! All firearms deer hunting methods are allowed.

The Missouri Department of Conservation will join with the Conservation Federation of Missouri and community sponsors to cover the costs of all whole deer donated to the Share the Harvest program during the urban portion. For a list of participating processors contact your regional Conservation Department office. See back cover and page 24.

New! More counties open in 2004

Youth portion

To participate, the youth hunter must be at least 6 and no older than 15 on the season opening day; however, there is no minimum age for landowner youth hunting on their own property.

Season dates

- Nov. 6–7 statewide

Methods

- All legal deer hunting methods listed on page 8 are allowed.

Note: Antler-point restrictions do not apply during the youth portion.

Permits for the youth portion

Many hunters incorrectly assume that only a Youth Deer & Turkey Hunting Permit is valid during the youth portion of the season. In fact, any of the permits listed on page 8 are valid during the youth portion.

November portion

The November portion, which occurs during the rut, allows hunters using all legal deer hunting methods an opportunity to harvest a deer.

Season dates

Nov. 13–23 statewide

Methods

- All legal deer hunting methods listed on page 8 are allowed.

Muzzleloader portion

This portion of the firearms season allows hunters additional time to hunt using muzzleloaders.

Season dates

Nov. 26–Dec. 5 statewide

Methods

- a muzzleloading or cap-and-ball firearm .40 caliber or larger and capable of firing only a single projectile at one discharge; in-lines and scopes are allowed
- multiple-barreled muzzleloading or cap-and-ball firearms and/or muzzleloading or cap-and-ball handguns .40 caliber or larger are allowed and may be carried in addition to a muzzleloading or cap-and-ball rifle

Antlerless portion

Any hunter with an unfilled firearms deer hunting permit of any type may take antlerless deer in counties that are open during this portion of the season. Landowner Any-Deer and Antlerless Deer Permits are valid only on the property for which they are issued.

Season dates

Dec. 11–19 only in 74 counties, see map

Methods

- All legal deer hunting methods listed on page 8 are allowed.

Sign up early for hunter education classes. Call the regional office near you or go on-line for class dates. See inside back cover for contact information.

Landowner and Lessee Deer and Turkey Hunting Privileges: Firearms and Archery Seasons

Private landowners contribute significantly to wildlife habitat in Missouri because only about 7 percent of Missouri's landscape is in public ownership. In recognition, resident landowners and lessees who meet the qualifications listed on this page may obtain no-cost hunting permits to take deer or turkey on qualifying land. Nonresident landowners may apply to purchase deer and turkey permits at reduced rates to hunt on qualifying land.

Points to remember

- New! Qualifying resident landowners and lessees are not required to purchase permits to take deer and turkey on their land during the appropriate hunting seasons, but they may pick up their no-cost permits from a permit vendor or request them from the Conservation Department. See page 12. Farm tags are no longer valid.
- All qualifying landowners and lessees must abide by season dates, methods, limits and tagging/checking requirements. Refer to the appropriate hunting season section for details.
- Landowner hunting privileges and associated permits are valid only on qualifying property. To hunt on other land, landowners and lessees must purchase permits.
- All landowners and lessees who do not fill their no-cost permits during the urban, youth, November or muzzleloader portions of the firearms deer season may use those permits during the antlerless portion on qualifying land only if their property is located in one of the open counties.
- New! Qualifying landowners and lessees may fill a no-cost Any-Deer Permit and a purchased Any-Deer Permit. However, each hunter may only take one antlered deer during the firearms deer hunting season. Therefore, landowners and lessees who take a buck on one Any-Deer Permit must take an antlerless deer on the other Any-Deer Permit. Note: Deer taken on a Managed Deer Hunting Permit or in accordance with the archery deer hunting season do not count toward this one-buck limit.
- Qualifying landowners and lessees may fill their no-cost Landowner Antlerless Permits and also purchase and fill any number of additional Antlerless Permits where valid.

Qualifications for no-cost or reduced-cost permits

Resident landowner: Any Missouri resident who owns at least 5 continuous acres, and his or her immediate household members. In the case of corporate ownerships, all registered officers of a corporation can qualify to receive no-cost permits, and they are not required to reside on the land. Persons who own stock in a corporation (shareholders) do not qualify under this definition.

Nonresident landowner: Any nonresident who owns at least 75 continuous acres in Missouri, and his or her immediate household members.

Lessee: Any Missouri resident who lives on at least 5 continuous acres owned by others, and his or her immediate household members.

Immediate Household Member: Someone, related or unrelated, who lives in the landowner's or lessee's home for at least the last 30 days. Family members who live elsewhere do not qualify.

Permits available

Qualifying resident landowners and lessees who have between 5 and 74 acres in a single tract and all members of their immediate household may each receive:

- 1 Resident Landowner Fall Firearms Turkey Hunting Permit,
- 1 Resident Firearms Landowner Any-Deer Hunting Permit,
- 1 Landowner Archer's Hunting Permit and
- 2 Landowner Archery Antlerless Deer Hunting Permits.

Qualifying resident landowners and lessees who have 75 or more acres in a single tract and all members of their immediate household may also each receive in addition to the above:

- up to 2 Resident Firearms Antlerless Deer Hunting Permits, depending on county availability.

All qualifying landowners may check their deer and turkey by calling a toll-free number or by going on-line. See back cover.

Note: Qualifying landowners and lessees with multiple 75-acre parcels in different counties who want permits valid on their land in all of those counties must apply through the Department's Jefferson City office. See inside back cover for contact information.

Where to get permits

For qualifying resident landowners and lessees of 5 or more acres, no-cost deer and turkey hunting permits are available at all permit vendors from July 1 through Jan. 15. You will need to know the county in which your property is located and the number of acres. Landowner permits also are available from the Department's Jefferson City office. See inside back cover. Pick up your permits early to avoid long lines and to enter the drawing for a lifetime permit.

For reduced-cost nonresident landowner permits, pick up an application form from any regional office or call (573) 751-4115 during normal business hours. All new applicants must submit verification of land ownership (such as a copy of a warranty deed) showing location (either survey number or section-township-range information) and number of acres owned.

Tagging and checking

Immediately after taking a deer or turkey, all landowners and lessees must detach the transportation tag portion of their permit and attach it to the game (see back cover) and either:

- New! use TeleCheck: the telephone or the internet to check game
- or
- present the game at an established checking station.

2004–2005 Managed Deer Hunts

Missouri offers numerous Managed Deer Hunts for archery, muzzleloading and modern firearms from October through January.

These hunts achieve deer management goals while also providing additional hunting opportunity.

Hunters are selected by random drawing, and all hunters have an equal chance of being selected.

Limit

A single Managed Deer Hunting Permit allows each hunter to take the number of deer allowed at the hunt he or she is attending.

Some hunts allow one deer, others two, some three, and one hunt allows four.

Note: Deer taken at a Managed Deer Hunt do not count toward the regular season bag limit.

Valid permits

- Resident or Nonresident Managed Deer Hunting Permit

Permits are available to successful applicants after Sept. 11 anywhere permits are sold.

Youth-Only Managed Hunts

There are five Youth-Only Managed Deer Hunts for youths ages 11 through 15 (see page 15). Application and notification processes are the same as for all managed hunts. Youth hunters may apply singly or with one youth buddy, but not as a group. All successful applicants will be notified by mail. Youths who apply for a youth-only hunt may not also apply for a “regular” Managed Deer Hunt.

The signature of a parent or guardian is required for each participating youth.

Those drawn to participate must:

- purchase a Resident or Nonresident Managed Deer Hunting Permit. Youth Deer & Turkey Hunting Permits are not valid.
- attend a pre-hunt orientation with the adult sponsor (age 21 or older) who will accompany them on the hunt.

Hunter education certification is required for all successful youth applicants and their accompanying parent/guardian/adult sponsor, regardless of the adult’s age. Minimum age to enroll in a hunter education course is 11. Hunter education certification is not required to apply for a Youth-Only Managed Deer Hunt, but must be achieved before the pre-hunt orientation.

Wheelchair-Confined Hunters

Any hunter permanently confined to a wheelchair is automatically allowed to participate in Managed Deer Hunts at:

- August A. Busch Memorial Conservation Area
- Burr Oak Woods Conservation Area
- Caney Mountain Conservation Area
- Drury-Mincy Conservation Area
- Fleming Park (east side)
- James A. Reed Wildlife Area
- Mingo National Wildlife Refuge (maximum of five wheelchair hunters)
- Peck Ranch Conservation Area
- Pershing State Park
- Prairie Fork Creek Conservation Area
- Shaw Nature Reserve

These hunts are part of the Managed Deer Hunt program and are not limited to disabled hunters. Mail a written request by Aug. 15 indicating hunt preference with attached physician’s statement to the Jefferson City address on the inside back cover, Attn: Managed Deer Hunts.

Each disabled hunter may be accompanied by an attendant/care-giver while hunting, but that person may not hunt unless he or she had applied and was successfully drawn for the same hunt. Wheelchair-confined hunters may participate in more than one Managed Deer Hunt, but must purchase a Managed Deer Hunting Permit for each hunt they attend.

Points to remember

- A summary of how many people applied for the managed hunts last year and how many deer were taken can be found on our website at www.missouriconservation.org/hunt/deer/mgndeer.
- If you are drawn for a Managed Deer Hunt but at the last minute cannot attend, call the hunt location and cancel to avoid being disqualified from next year's hunts. Another hunter cannot take your place. Only those names that appeared on the application at the time of the random drawing may attend.
- If you have a methods exemption, you may use a crossbow in an Archery Managed Deer Hunt.
- If you apply as one of a party on the application card or as an individual, your chances of being drawn for a Managed Deer Hunt are the same as everyone else's.
- Individuals not drawn for a Managed Deer Hunt may not accompany a hunter who was successfully drawn.
- ATVs are prohibited on the Managed Deer Hunt areas.

When to apply for a managed hunt

- July 1–Aug. 15

Who can apply

If applying for a youth-only hunt, youths may apply singly or with one youth buddy, but not as a group.

If applying for all other hunts, hunters may apply individually or as a group of up to six hunters.

For how many hunts can a hunter apply?

Each hunter may apply for only one Managed Deer Hunt each year. Hunters who apply for more than one will be disqualified from this year's drawing.

To apply, complete the following steps

Step 1:

Designate one member of your group to either place a call or go on-line. That person must have ready the following information:

- the two-digit number for the preferred hunt
- the nine-digit Conservation I.D. number of each hunter in the group. If you need an I.D. number, call (573) 751-4115 during regular business hours to have one assigned.

Step 2:

Complete the worksheet to the right before calling or going on-line so you will have all the information ready.

Step 3:

Either call the interactive voice response telephone system between 4 a.m. and midnight using a touch-tone phone at (800) 829-2956 or go on-line at www.missouriconservation.org/hunt/deer. 2004 Deer and Turkey Permits

Anyone who hunts, takes or attempts to take wildlife in any way must have the prescribed permit(s). Each hunter must sign, carry and show, upon request, his or her permit to any officer who enforces the Wildlife Code of Missouri.

Points to remember

- You must have your signed permit in hand when you go afield to hunt.
- Permits cannot be exchanged or refunded.
- New! Get your resident deer permits by Nov. 5 and earn a chance to win a lifetime hunting and fishing permit.
- Permits may be used in any order.
- New! Residents do not have to purchase a Firearms Any-Deer Hunting Permit or Archer's Hunting Permit before purchasing Antlerless Deer Hunting Permits.
- Nonresidents must purchase a Nonresident Firearms Any-Deer Hunting Permit or a Nonresident Archer's

Hunting Permit before purchasing Antlerless Deer Hunting Permits.

- You do not have to purchase your Any-Deer and Antlerless Deer Permits at the same time, but most hunters prefer to buy more than one firearms permit before the season opens so they can take full advantage of harvest opportunities when they occur.

How to purchase permits

Purchase your deer and turkey hunting permits from July 1 through the end of the appropriate seasons using any of the methods below.

- Over the counter from any permit vendor. Buy early to avoid long lines.
- By telephone at (800) 392-4115 any time. Use your credit card, and pay a $2 surcharge. Allow 10 days for delivery.

Youth permit for residents and nonresidents

Youth Deer & Turkey Hunting Permit $17

- For 1 deer of either sex statewide during the firearms deer hunting season, except that only an antlerless deer may be taken during the urban and antlerless portions of the firearms season
- and for 1 turkey of either sex during the fall firearms turkey hunting season

New! Nonresidents may now participate in the youth portion of the firearms deer season.

This permit can be used by residents and nonresidents ages 6 through 15 who are hunting in the immediate presence of a properly licensed adult hunter who has in his or her possession a valid hunter education certificate card.

- "Immediate presence" means close enough for normal conversation, without shouting.
- "Properly licensed" means a valid firearms hunting permit for the appropriate season (i.e., either a filled or unfilled Firearms Deer or a Fall Firearms Turkey Hunting Permit).
- "Adult" means someone age 17 or older.

- "Valid hunter education certificate card" means the adult must be hunter education certified, except that landowners born before Jan. 1, 1967, accompanying youth hunters on the landowners' property are exempt.

In addition, adults accompanying youths hunting deer on a Youth Deer & Turkey Hunting Permit must wear hunter orange. Regardless of age, the youth must be capable of holding, aiming and shooting the firearm by him or herself.

Obtain permission before entering private land. Your hunting permit does not authorize trespass.

General Regulations

Deer and turkey may be pursued, taken, killed, possessed or transported only as outlined in this booklet.

Firearms safety

Firearms safety is the first responsibility of every hunter. All hunters must be familiar with and follow the rules of safe firearms handling.

Hunter-orange requirements

The following persons are required to wear a hat and also a shirt, vest or coat of hunter orange so that the color is plainly visible from all sides. Camouflage orange does not satisfy this requirement.

- firearms deer hunters during all five portions of the firearms deer season
- adults accompanying youths hunting deer on a Youth Deer & Turkey Hunting Permit
- archery hunters during the youth portion statewide and during the urban and antlerless portions in open counties
- all hunters except migratory bird hunters during the urban, youth, November and antlerless portions in open counties. New! This includes fall firearm turkey hunters on Oct. 11, 2004.

The following firearms deer hunters are exempt from the hunter-orange requirement:

- hunters using archery methods within municipal boundaries where discharge of firearms is prohibited
- hunters on federal or state public hunting areas where deer hunting is by archery methods only

Methods of pursuit

- Deer and turkeys may not be taken with the use of dogs, bait, recorded calls or live decoys. Scents and minerals, including salt, are not considered bait. An area is considered baited for 10 days even after complete removal of the bait. It is illegal to place bait in a way that causes others to be in violation of the baiting rule.
- Deer may not be hunted, pursued or taken within any area enclosed by a fence greater than 7 feet in height, except in licensed hunting preserves.
- Deer and turkeys may not be pursued or taken from or with a motor-driven vehicle. Deer may not be taken while they are in a stream or other body of water, or from any boat with a motor attached.

Definitions

Deer: White-tailed deer and mule deer.

Antlered Deer: A deer with at least one antler a minimum of 3 inches long, except that special restrictions apply in 29 counties. See page 3.

Take: To hunt, pursue, wound, capture or kill any wildlife in any manner. Also includes acts of assistance to other persons attempting to take wildlife.

Taker: A person who takes or attempts to take wildlife.

Resident: A person who does not claim resident privileges in another state or country, and whose actual and legal residence are both in Missouri and have been for at least the last 30 days.

Hunter education certificate requirement

Hunters born on or after Jan. 1, 1967, must complete an approved hunter education program and show their card or verify certification through the permit vendor's computer terminal. Those under age 11 cannot obtain hunter education certification and thus cannot purchase regular firearms deer or turkey hunting permits, but they may purchase a Youth Deer & Turkey Hunting Permit without being hunter education certified.

Assisting other deer and turkey hunters

A person must have a filled or unfilled turkey hunting permit to call turkeys for another hunter. Also, a person must have a filled or unfilled deer hunting permit to assist others in taking deer by active participation in deer drives or by enticing deer with calls or rattling antlers.

Tree stands placed on Conservation Department areas

Only portable tree stands may be placed or used only between Sept. 1 and Jan. 31 on Conservation Department areas. Stands must be identified with the full name and address of the owner or Conservation Number and be removed from the area before Feb. 1. Use of nails, screw-in steps or any material that would damage the tree is prohibited.

Purple paint law

Landowners may post or define the boundaries of their property by marking trees and fence posts with purple paint. In a court of law, a property boundary marked with purple paint is the same as posting “No Trespassing” signs.

Retrieval of game

Anyone who kills or injures a deer or turkey must make a reasonable effort to retrieve and include the animal in his or her season limit, but this does not authorize trespass. It is a violation to wantonly leave or abandon commonly edible portions of game.

Labeling game

All harvested deer and turkeys, either whole or processed, must be labeled with the taker’s full name, address and permit number.

Giving away wildlife

A hunter who takes wildlife may give it to another person, but the game counts toward the taker’s bag limit. Wildlife that is given away must be labeled with the taker’s full name, address, permit number, species and the date taken.

Possession, storage and sale

Deer inspected and marked with a locking seal or a telephone or internet checking confirmation number may be possessed by anyone if the deer/deer parts are labeled with the taker’s full name, address, permit number and the date taken. The check station locking seal or TeleCheck confirmation number must remain attached to the carcass until a processor begins the act of processing the meat for packaging. Properly checked turkeys may be possessed by anyone if labeled with the taker’s full name, address, permit number and the date taken.

Deer left at commercial processing or cold storage plants must be claimed by May 1 following the season taken or the owner will be in violation of Rule 3CSR10-4.140.

Turkeys may not be possessed after Feb. 15 following the season taken.

Legally obtained turkey bones and feathers, and deer heads, antlers, hides, and feet may be sold by the taker, but the taker must provide a bill of sale showing:

- the taker’s full name and address,
- the species and number of the parts,
- the full name and address of the buyer.

For deer heads and/or antlers attached to skull plates, the bill of sale also must include the transaction date and a signed statement from the seller that the head/antlers were taken legally.

Restrictions for taking feral hogs during fall firearms deer and turkey hunting seasons

Feral hogs may be taken in any number throughout the year. During most of the year, no permit is required and any method, including baiting and the use of dogs, is allowed. However, special restrictions apply during the fall firearms deer and turkey hunting seasons.

During all portions of the fall firearms deer season:

- you must possess a valid, unfilled firearms deer or small game hunting permit;
- you must abide by the methods of pursuit allowed for deer listed on page 8;
- you must abide by any other restrictions that may apply on specific public areas.

During the November portion statewide and the antlerless portion in open counties:

- if you have a deer permit you may only use methods allowed for deer;

- if you have a small game permit you may only use a shotgun with shot not larger than No. 4;
- you may not use dogs to pursue feral hogs during these portions of the firearms deer season.

While hunting on a Fall Firearms Turkey Hunting Permit, you may only use methods allowed for turkey.

During the youth and muzzleloader portions statewide, and the urban portion in open counties:

- if you have a deer permit you may only use methods allowed for deer;
- if you have a small game permit you may only use methods allowed for small game.

Note: Resident landowners and lessees on their land are not required to have any permit, and they may use any method or means to take feral hogs throughout the year, including during all portions of the firearms deer and turkey hunting seasons.

- Report sightings of feral hogs to the Conservation Department by calling (573) 522-4115, ext. 3147.
- For more information, including a map showing general areas where feral hogs may be found, go to: www.missouriconservation.org/hunt/hogs.

If you encounter a feral hog while hunting deer or turkey, shoot it on sight.

Wildlife Code of Missouri—Deer Hunting Regulations

3 CSR 10-7.431 Deer Hunting Seasons: General Provisions

(1) The annual Fall Deer & Turkey Hunting Regulations and Information booklet is hereby adopted as a part of this Wildlife Code and by this reference herein incorporated. A printed copy of this booklet can be obtained from the Missouri Department of Conservation, P.O. Box 180, Jefferson City, MO 65102-0180 and is on-line at www.missouriconservation.org.

(2) Deer shall mean white-tailed deer and mule deer. Antlered deer shall mean deer with at least one (1) antler at least three inches (3") long, except as provided in 3 CSR 10-7.435. Deer may be pursued, taken, killed, possessed or transported only as permitted in the Wildlife Code.

(3) Persons hunting or pursuing deer must possess a prescribed deer hunting permit. Resident landowners and lessees can qualify for no-cost permits; nonresident landowners can qualify for reduced-cost permits.

(4) Deer may be pursued or taken only from one-half (1/2) hour before sunrise until one-half (1/2) hour after sunset.

(5) Deer hunting methods.

(A) Archery: longbows and compound bows.

(B) Muzzleloader: muzzleloading or cap-and-ball firearms, .40 caliber or larger, not capable of being loaded from the breech.

3. Ammunition propelling more than one projectile at a single discharge, such as buckshot.

4. Full hard metal case projectiles.

(6) Deer may not be hunted, pursued, taken or killed:

(D) With the aid of dogs, in use or possession.

(G) With the aid of bait (grain or other feed placed or scattered so as to constitute an attraction or enticement to deer). Scents and minerals, including salt, are not regarded as bait. An area is considered baited for ten (10) days following complete removal of bait. Hunters can be in violation even if they did not know an area was baited. It is illegal to place bait in a way that causes others to be in violation of the baiting rule.

(7) During the firearms deer hunting season, all persons hunting any game and also adults accompanying youths hunting deer on a Youth Deer & Turkey Hunting Permit, must wear a hat and a shirt, vest, or coat of the color commonly known as hunter orange, which must be plainly visible from all sides. The following are exempt from this requirement:

(8) Hunters who kill or injure a deer must make a reasonable effort to retrieve and tag it, but this does not authorize trespass.

(9) Hunters who kill a deer must tag it immediately with the transportation tag portion of the permit; detaching the transportation tag voids the permit. The transportation tag must remain attached to the intact or field-dressed carcass until it has been inspected and registered by the taker at an official checking station, or reported through the TeleCheck Harvest Reporting System and the confirmation number immediately recorded on the transportation tag portion of the permit. All deer taken must be checked within twenty-four (24) hours. Qualifying resident landowners may either submit deer at an official checking station or use the TeleCheck Harvest Reporting System.

(10) Deer checked in accordance with established procedures may be possessed, transported, and stored by anyone. Locking seals placed on deer at official checking stations, or transportation tags with TeleCheck confirmation numbers, must remain attached to the carcass until processing begins. Parts of properly checked deer, when labeled with the full name, address, and permit number of the taker, may be possessed and transported by anyone. Commercially processed deer meat may be donated to not-for-profit charitable organizations under guidelines established by the director.

Hunter Ethics and Safety

According to the National Safety Council, hunting is a safe activity. In fact, hunting results in fewer injuries per 100,000 participants than do many other sports, including cycling, bowling, golf and tennis. However, as with any activity, you must always use good judgment and take responsibility for your actions. Deer and turkey hunters should follow safe, ethical hunting practices. These include:

- Be sure of your target and beyond before you shoot.
- Make sure your equipment is in good working condition and your firearm is properly sighted in.
- If you hunt from a tree stand, always wear a safety harness. Serious accidents occur annually when hunters fall from tree stands.
- If you hunt on private land, be sure to obtain permission from the landowner and respect his or her property as if it were your own. Scout the area you plan to hunt so you know where the boundaries, houses, roads, fences and livestock are located on the property.
- If you do not kill your deer or turkey instantly, make every effort to find the wounded animal. Permission is required to enter private land.
- Clean and care for your game properly.
- Pick up all litter. Leaving an area better than the way you found it is a sign of thanks for the privilege of hunting.

- Report observed violations of the law to a conservation agent or local sheriff as soon as possible.
- If you are involved in a firearms-related accident, the law requires that you identify yourself and render assistance; failure to do so is a Class 'A' misdemeanor.
- Develop your skills and knowledge, and share them with others.
- Know and obey all wildlife laws.
- Know and follow the rules of gun safety.
- Respect the rights of hunters, nonhunters and landowners.
- Make every effort to retrieve and use all game.
- Respect the land and all wildlife.
- Be sensitive to others when displaying harvested game.
- Remember, hunting is not a competitive sport.

Improve your hunting and outdoor skills:

The Conservation Department offers a variety of outdoor skills classes for people of all ages. Classes on hunting, firearms safety, fishing, canoeing, hiking and much more are offered around the state. For more information, contact an outdoors skill specialist at the regional office near you or check the events calendar on the Department's website. See inside back cover.

Share the Harvest sets new record

88 tons of venison donated in 2003

The Share the Harvest program provides a way for hunters to donate deer meat to needy Missourians. Donations almost doubled from 2002 to 2003, jumping from 96,595 pounds to 177,435 pounds as of March 1, 2004. Whole deer donations increased from 1,100 in 2002 to more than 4,000 in 2003. The program is administered by the Missouri Department of Conservation and the Conservation Federation of Missouri.

It's easy to donate. Hunters who want to participate simply take their deer to an approved meat processor and tell them how much venison they wish to donate. The processor will package and store the meat for pick up by a local sponsoring agency. The agency then delivers the venison to local organizations for distribution to the needy.

The Conservation Federation of Missouri is coordinating a payback program that will pay $35 toward processing when hunters donate a whole deer to Share the Harvest. During the urban portion of the firearms season, the processing fee for whole deer donations will be fully covered at certain processors within the open counties. Contact processors listed below to confirm the level of their participation.

Corporate sponsors of the payback program include Shelter Insurance and Bass Pro Shops. Payback requests must be received by May 15. To learn more about the program or to find out how your organization can become a sponsor, contact the Conservation Department at (573) 522-4115, ext. 3290, or the Conservation Federation at (573) 634-2322.

2004 Check Station Locations

Accurate harvest information is critical to proper deer herd management. Although streamlined procedures have reduced the time spent examining deer at check stations, the information gathered is very important. Hunters are encouraged to arrive at the check station as early as possible to avoid congestion.

Check Station Hours: 8 a.m.–8 p.m. unless noted otherwise below with an asterisk (*)

Testing Finds No Evidence of CWD in Missouri's Deer

All test results were negative when approximately 200 deer from each of the counties shown in white were tested for chronic wasting disease in 2002 and 2003. Counties in orange will be tested during the 2004 deer hunting season at check stations through this voluntary program.

CWD causes a degeneration of the brain in deer and elk. However, CWD has not been linked to human health and there is no evidence that it can spread to livestock. However, wildlife managers are concerned about the disease because of its potential impacts on individual deer, deer populations, and deer herd management.

Nonresident Deer Harvest

Some Missouri resident deer hunters have the mistaken notion that nonresident deer hunters outnumber the residents. In reality, nonresident hunters are a small minority.

For example, last year 622,488 firearms deer hunting permits were sold. Of those, 596,643, or more than 97 percent, were purchased by Missouri residents.

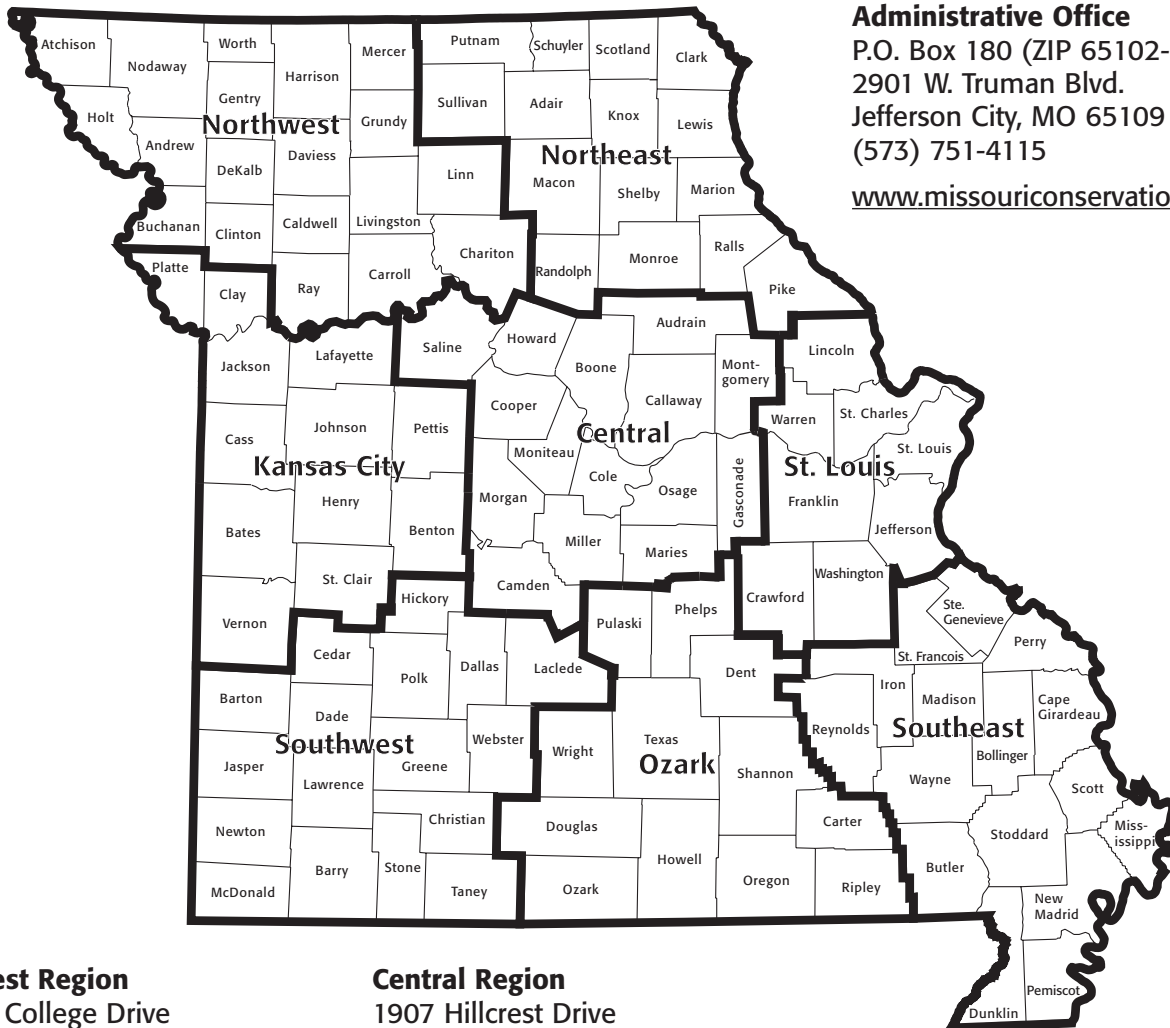

What about deer harvest? Of the 254,814 deer taken during the firearms deer season, 248,203, or more than 97 percent, were taken by resident hunters. The same is true for the archery season; nearly 97 percent of the deer taken last year were taken by Missouri residents.

We should remember that many nonresident hunters are former residents who return to Missouri to hunt with family and friends. We welcome all responsible and ethical hunters.
